RUGBY UNION

Reserves win with one man short

Dubbo reserves' 23-3 win against Goolma in the Central Western Rugby Union zone competition was marred by the tenth minute sending off of key breakaway, Graham Mackie.

Dubbo's win almost ensures its inclusion in the semi-finals, but the side faces the task of replacing Mackie for an expected minimum of two matches.

Mackie was marched for over-vigorous play.

Playing with 14 men, Dubbo were still too classy for the young Goolma side.

Dubbo played the first half at a disadvantage; running up the more than slight incline which has become Goolma's home ground trademark.

Despite this, the visiting side scored all but four points in the first half.

The home side put the first points on the board with a penalty in front, following Mackie's indiscretion.

Dubbo replied with a try by captain and five-eighth, Darrell Innes.

The try was a typical Innes effort, the veteran selling three dummies before scoring out wide, following a good scrum win in centrefield by hooker,

John Fisher.

In the 20th minute, the ageless prop, Lloyd Davies, went over for a barging try, shrugging off three tackles after an intelligent cross-kick by halfback, Brian Peardon.

John Watts converted, making the score 11-3.

Dubbo looked all over the better side at this stage, their forwards combining well to offset the player shortage and the backs, well served by Peardon and Innes, running well when they held their passes.

Goolma tended to squander possession through injudicious kicks.

Innes went in for his second try when strong running centre, Peter Whale put him through a gap, following good second phase play by the Dubbo forwards.

Watts failed with the conversion (an easy one) but made amends by scoring a try under the posts, running off Innes.

The try was made by a good backline link-up between Whale and winger, Craig Hunt.

Hunt, after a three week absence, had a big game for Dubbo, running strongly in attack and defence.

Geoff Graham rounded off the first half with an individualist's try, running from halfway, through numerous tackles, making the score 23-3 at the break.

In the second half, with the slope advantage, Dubbo started strongly, but three tries went begging through dropped, or poor passes.

Fisher scored a try after Innes made a long break downfield, but these were the last points scored by Dubbo.

Goolma rallied in the second half, upgrading the standard of their defence and driving harder into the rucks, but failed to add to their total.

In first grade, Dubbo had the bye.

Dubbo reserves 27 (tries, Innes 2, Watts, Fisher, Graham, Davies one each. Goals, Watts 1) d Goolma 3 (1 goal).

—Perry Yeldham

● Rugby Union, five-eighth, Darrel Innes (10) makes another break upfield for Dubbo reserves leaving Goolma players trailing in his wake. Dubbo won the match 27-3.

What does it mean?

DAN Frogan (Daily, August 29) needs to clarify some points. Could he explain the meaning of "growth management"?

Why is it necessary to refer to a person's country of origin or ethnic background? Could he explain what is wrong with population control and why he refers to its proponents as "narrow minded and intolerant?"

Is this an attempt to intimidate opposition? If he thinks the population of Australia/Sunshine Coast must be increased, surely it is incumbent on him to state his ideal population and on what he bases his opinion.

It is pleasing to see Dan giving the population debate an intellectual edge. I look forward to the usual erudite contributions from our local leaders of opinion on such weighty topics -- Councillor Don Davidson and Mayor King.

Kangaroos' reunion

DUBBO Kangaroos are proud of their strong rugby ties in the State's central west.

"Not too many country clubs can boast three Wallabies in 20 years," said spokesman Graham Mackie.

"We have had Ollie Hall, Steve Williams and Daniel Frogan go on to wear the green and gold."

Mackie reports that the club has also had the likes of Ian Ludeke, Barry Baillie, Grant Hunt and Paul Darcy go on to represent NSW Country.

ABC regional sports presenter Gerry Collins also wore the club colours as did All Black triallist Darrell Innes.

"The Kangaroos are planning a 20-year reunion in August to commemorate the club's two decades of history," Mackie added.

Highlights of the reunion will be a gathering at the Western Star Hotel, taking in the game against the equally-famed Cowra club, followed by a reunion dinner at the Dubbo Amaroo.

More details from either Graham Mackie (066) 461 358 or Kieran Gleeson, 16 O'Connor Place, Dubbo.

Couldnt let the moment pass without dropping you a goal-sorry-line.

There were a few raised eye brows when the name, Dan Frogan, appeared in the reserves list of an RSL cricket team last week.

For Dan Frogan has been a stalwart of one of RSL's opposing clubs, Rugby Union, for years.

The name Dan Frogan has been synonymous with great feats on the Rugby Union field and many other sports.

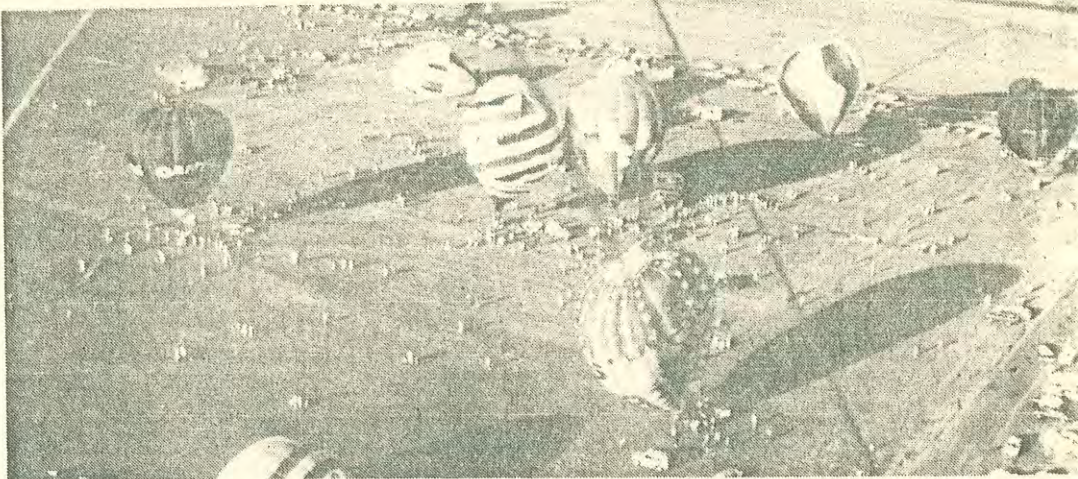

He has often been on the teams sheets of many winning Rugby Union and cricket sides.

Dan is held in such high regard in the Rugby Union Club that he has a bar named after him.

No doubt many people will be asking the question of what inducement Dan Frogan was given to switch to RSL after such an illustrious career with Rugby Union.

6.50 pm Saturday, 2BL, A Gynaecologist Sports Broadcaster: Another one to catch on the weekend is the new voice of an ex-gynaecologist which has replaced that of Norman May on ABC sports. His name is Mr Dan Frogan and his comments may upset those who prefer more traditional sports commentary. They are zany, spicy and off the cuff. But don't despair, for Mr Frogan has only been allocated a five minute slot.

'Wanted' pilot makes contact

● The pilot of an ultra light aircraft which buzzed the bicentennial challenge balloons in Dubbo last week has identified himself to the Daily Liberal as Wing Commander Dr Dan Frogan - and has sent in this aerial photo as proof of his identity. The photo arrived in an unmarked envelope in mysterious circumstances at the Daily Liberal on Friday. Police are still reportedly searching for the phantom pilot who breached air traffic regulations by flying over Dubbo and close to the hot air balloons. However, the revelation of the pilot's identity will bring little joy to angry authorities - Dan Frogan is a mythical (some say legendary) Rugby Union player, war veteran and socialite, best known for his annual New Year's Eve bash at Dubbo racecourse.

DAILY TELEGRAPH, Monday, November 26, 1984

Rugby jokers score freely with Frogan

Dr Dan's club's mystery man

THERE have been some pretty incredible hoaxes over the years.

The famous con man Murray Beresford Roberts fooled the whole of the Manly district when he booked into a local hotel a few decades ago and pretended to be the West German industrialist Baron von Krupp.

The local council even threw a civic reception for him.

Then there was the student who arrived one morning for lectures at Sydney University and saw some gasmen digging up the road.

He promptly phoned the police and anonymously reported that a group of students posing as gasmen were doing the digging.

In turn, he phoned the Gas Board and warned them that some students posing as policemen were on their way to harass the gasmen.

An unholy punch-up between police and gasmen followed.

You don't have to live,

in Sydney to fall victim to hoaxes.

Try visiting Dubbo and its very fine Rugby Union Club.

You might try it on New Year's Eve, when the club is holding a gala night.

The invitations are quite to the point: "The Rugby Union Club wishes to advise of your appointment with Dr Dan Frogan at his New Year's Eve Ball."

Notice the wording. It's Dr Dan's party - not the club's.

All-rounder

Dr Dan Frogan is one of the best known names in Dubbo. And I use the word names on purpose.

The stories about him are legion.

He is supposed to have played Number Eight for Australia in Rugby Tests, although a check through the records fails to find any mention of him.

Malcolm Andrews

ON THE SPOT

He is similarly said to have rowed for Australia in the eights at the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

And, of course, he was a very fine cricketer in his youth. Sadly, we are told, the good doctor's muscles aren't as supple as they used to be, so he has had to hang up his bat and pads.

Our attempts to meet the doctor (who has a bar named after him in the Dubbo Rugby Club) all failed.

But we were assured that he really did exist.

A couple of years ago when the British schoolboy rugby team played a match in Dubbo, members were presented with a didgeridoo, which they duly took back with them to rugby's headquarters in Twickenham, just outside of London.

If the good gentlemen at Twickers accepted a gift from Dr Dan, he must exist.

Those years ago, when police arrived at the Manly reception to arrest Murray Beresford Roberts, he asked them if, before leaving, he could shake hands with the guests and thank them for their hospitality.

"I wouldn't want them to be disappointed," he told the police.

Dr Dan Frogan would have surely agreed with those sentiments.

Golden Oldies wield willow at Yamba

THIS Sunday at Yamba Oval there will be a unique game of cricket bringing together a galaxy of past players who have either represented Australia or NSW, played grade cricket in Sydney or represented the North Coast and who now are all residents of the NSW North Coast from Gloucester to Tweed Heads.

The game is the brainchild of the present North Coast regional coaching directors Stan Gilchrist, Graham Mackie and John Brenton who wish to stage this annual fixture with the aim of eventually putting together a North Coast Golden Oldies team to compete overseas in the bi-annual tournaments.

The match features some colourful players and brings together six cricketers who have competed at a first class level.

Top of the list is former Australian all-rounder Johnny Martin, the diminutive left hander from Durrell Creek near Taree.

Ron Crippin, the slashing Randwick and NSW opening bat will captain the Mid North Coast and he possibly will open the innings with his former Shield teammate Allan Anderson from Port Macquarie.

Murray McKeough and Port Macquarie's Barry Piper provide a strong middle order while the youthful John Brenton will take the brunt of the fast bowling responsibilities.

For Combined North Coast/Far North Coast, two players from the successful NSW team of 1966 will be reunited in the form of former ACT captain Kerry Owen now from Coffs Harbour and St George fast bowler Peter Leslie now captain-coach of Cudgen.

Former Queensland and Balmain left arm spinner evergreen John McMahon from Lismore will be almost unplayable on the Yamba wicket.

February 11, Yamba Oval, 10.30 start.

Teams:

Combined North Coast/-

(Lismore), Stan Gilchrist (Lismore), George Harvey (Grafton), John Adlington (Lismore), Daniel Frogan (Brushgrove).

Mid North Coast: John Brenton (Crescent Head) (vc), Michael Steinmetz (Taree), Wayne Smoothy (Wingham), Ron Crippin (Taree) (capt), John McKeough (Taree), Tom Blundell (Gloucester), Murray McKeough (Newcastle), Cliff Goms (Pt. Macq.), Neville Bell (Wingham), Peter Ebert (Port Macq.), Barry Piper (Port Macq.), Allan Anderson (Port Macq.), John Martin (Burrell Creek), Dick Ayre (Kempsey), Greg Walkley (Port Macq).

Scorer: Ron Blok (Lismore).

Far North Coast in shield win

WHILE the minds were willing the bodies failed in a number of cases when the Golden Oldies of North Coast cricket clashed in the inaugural battle for the Dan Frogan Shield.

With muscles aching, the Mid North Coast team took the field after the previous night's storm had seen the Yamba wicket flooded and under water, Taree's Mick Steinmetz had no hesitation in electing to bowl first on this greentop but Grafton's George Harvey 17 and Lismore's Graham Gooley had other ideas and batted comfortably putting on 29 for the first wicket before Harvey lost his wicket to the swing bowling of Dick Ayre.

with Michael Ryan (30) and they hammered the bowlers to all parts of the ground.

With Gooley finally stumped by Steinmetz for a brilliant 95 which included four fours and five sixes taken mainly from the bowling of left arm spinner Peter McDonnell who had two stumpings and two catches missed off his bowling.

Dorrigo's John Rowe looked the classiest player on both sides and unluckily tore a calf muscle taking off for a run which 10 years ago would have been an easy three.

Yamba's Barry Leonard finished unbeaten with a nonchalant 22 and the score at 213 for the loss of six wickets after 40 overs.

Pick of the Mid North Coast bowlers was Neville Bell with three for 19 from five overs.

Laurie Tillman and Taree's John McKeough started confidently against the former Dubbo pairing of left handers Graham Mackie and ex-NSW player Peter Leslie before Tillman was snapped up brilliantly by veteran Palmers Island stumper Alastair Barnier with 31 runs on the board.

McKeough (35) went with the score on 65 to a juggling catch by Leslie in slips and Brenton (30) was dropped a number of times before he was caught and bowled by George Harvey.

Off spinner Michael

Ryan was turning the ball prodigiously and the fluent steady pace of Yamba headmaster Geoff Gorman proved too much for the visitors and Gorman finished with impressive figures of three for 29 and would have been a delight to watch back in the 1960s.

Dean Bell provided some entertaining batting in the final overs as he straight hit Gorman appropriately into the sandpit at Yamba public, a massive hit on any size cricket ground.

Mid North Coast southern legends were finally dismissed for 164, 49 runs short of the target in an enlightening day's cricket.

North Coast captain and ex-NSW batsman Kerry Owen accepted the shield from former Australian allrounder Daniel Frogan and hoped this match would be an annual fixture in the NSW cricket calendar.

Squirrels are sent packing

AUSTRALIAN visitor Dan Fegan, skippering Sheffield Squirrels for the first time in the 61st Norfolk tour, declared at a mammoth 295-5 (Shaun Beck 157) only to see his hopes dashed when Cromer reached the target in 36 overs without losing a wicket.

SQUIRRELS' TOUR JOY

A BRILLIANT unbeaten century scored in 18 overs by Australian Dan Fegan was the highlight of Sheffield Squirrels 56th Norfolk tour. He achieved his feat at Castle Rising in a comfortable eight-wicket victory.

Squirrels, with several Yorkshire League players in the squad, won all five matches. Collegiate's Dave Longley scoring 108 and United's Shaun Beck 71 in the victory at Wisbech, with former United man Dave Watson hitting 92 in a close two wicket victory at Cromer.

Opening pair in thrilling performance

Cromer (301-0) beat Sheffield Squirrels (295) by 10 wickets.

ON Tuesday Cromer entertained Sheffield Squirrels in their annual encounter at the Norton Warnes ground - and it turned out to be a record-breaking occasion.

Skipper-for-the-day Evan Tuck put the visitors in to bat and that looked to be the wrong decision as Beck raced away in brutal fashion.

Yates, Watson, Clark and Roper all supported him as he made his way to 157 before being stumped by Crampsie off Hogg. The total of 295 for five declared seemed a tall order for Cromer, but nobody could anticipate what was to follow as Chris Carey and Martin Pearse opened and closed the Cromer innings.

In between, the crowd were treated to a vast array of orthodox and improvised stroke-play from them, and in the course of their undefeated partnership of 301 they beat the existing Cromer opening partnership record of 267, set back in 1978 by Frank Tyce and present club chairman Trevor Reynolds.

It was an occasion to savour and remember for a long time.

Maclean keeper Luke Duggan keeps a close eye as Woodlawn batsman Matt Green blocks a Craig Bell delivery during the first grade match.

Maclean outclass visitors to take five grade victory

MACLEAN High School outclassed Lismore's Woodlawn College to claim the Frogan Shield for the first time in three years, winning all five grades.

Maclean High coach Graham Mackie said it was the first time Maclean High had won the shield comprehensively, winning all five grades, although they did win all grades eight years ago when only four were contested.

"The Shield has been pretty well shared in the 11 years since its inception but Maclean High hasn't held it since 1991, with Woodlawn winning in 1992 and 1993 and the competition abandoned last year due to rain," he said.

Maclean High won the First XI match by 11 runs last week.

They batted first and were seven wickets down for 144 on completion of their overs after a solid start by Brad Simmons and Luke Duggan. Simmons and Duggan combined to score 63 for the first wicket before Duggan was dismissed for 20.

Simmons batted on, scoring 42 runs before he was bowled, while top order batsmen Craig Bell and Matt Audley contributed to the total, scoring 16 and 25 respectively.

Shani Drou was the most successful bowler for Woodlawn, taking four wickets for 37, including the vital wicket of Simmons.

Despite the loss of an early wicket, Woodlawn College always threatened Maclean High's total. Despite consistent batting they failed to score the required runs in the allotted overs.

Keith Shay was the top run scorer for Woodlawn, finishing 30 not out, in their total of 7-133.

Andrew Causley and Craig Bell led Maclean's superior bowling attack, each taking two wickets, but it was their over-all lack of sundries which kept them in the match. Maclean conceded nine sundries while Woodlawn's bowlers gave away 26 — a match winning difference.

Maclean scored their most convincing win in the Second XI match, where Dallas Waters and Brendan Randall virtually won the game.

Frogan shield to Maclean

WATERS and Randall each took four wickets and were largely responsible for having Woodlawn out for 47. Then they combined to demoralise the Woodlawn attack, Randall scoring 6-4 and Waters 56 not out in Maclean's total of 5-158.

In the year nine game Maclean set a difficult total of 145 then had Woodlawn all out for 98. Mark Ellem opened for Maclean and scored 21 and Tony Want top scored with 30. Andy Roberts was Woodlawn's best bowler, taking 4-43 from nine overs.

Woodlawn got away to a good start but fell into a heap when Scott Flanagan bowled two overs conservatively, but struck hard in his third and fourth overs and was on a hat-trick on two occasions. He took two wickets in his third over, then backed up with three in his fourth and final over to finish with 5-13.

Again Maclean's bowlers bowled consistently, conceding only six sundries compared with the 41 sundries Woodlawn's bowlers conceded.

The year eight game was the closest, with Maclean scoring the winning run with only one wicket and one over in hand. Woodlawn batted first and were all out for 87.

Kyle Rae was the main destroyer for Maclean taking four wickets and conceding only 11 runs.

In reply Maclean scored the runs with little time to spare, Luke Richardson and Jonathan Shaw top scoring with 21 and 18 respectively.

Maclean High won the year seven game by 17 runs after batting first and setting Woodlawn a target of 98 then bowling them out for 80.

Intolerant attitude

WHILE attending the small gathering of the Maroochy Shire Residents and Rate-payers Association at the recent meeting in Nambour I was astounded to hear a proposition put forward by one of those present.

While addressing an organisation whose president is Spanish, vice-president is English, and secretary is English, a gentleman with a broad European accent (possibly German), appealed for the shire to put a stop to any more people coming here to live.

Surely this gentleman would acknowledge that if our forebears had such a selfish and illiberal attitude towards new settlers, that neither he nor this organisation's executive as well as a portion of those in attendance, would today be enjoying the beauty and lifestyle characteristics of the Maroochy Shire.

This intolerant, narrow minded perspective on growth management should not and cannot be fostered.

Cross country races

THE North Coast combined high schools regional cross country was recently held at Maclean High School with schools competing from as far as Wauchope to Tweed Heads.

The top six runners in each age group were selected to contest the State championships to be held at Scarborough Park in Sydney on July 19.

With the North Coast region divided into four zones the eventual winner was the strong Mid-North Coast zone which comprises schools from Grafton to Coffs Harbour.

They finished on 625 points — well clear of the Richmond zone on 581 points.

Spokesman for the Richmond zone Daniel Frogan said the course was challenging and provided an excellent variety of conditions essential for cross country running.

Fine individual performances were recorded on the day with the three most outstanding efforts coming from 12-year-old Scott McConnell of South Grafton.

Ballina's Jeff Bartlett powered home in the 16 years 6000m event in 26m 58 secs and Maclean High's Samantha Turner ran smoothly in the 16 year old girls race.

Other highlights were Janette Furlonger (Coffs Harbour) second in the 12 years, Tanya Doyle (South Grafton) sixth in the 14 years girls, Kristy Edmunds (Grafton) second in the 15 years, Trina McNamara (Grafton) sixth in the 15 years and Shae Bonney (Maclean) third in the 15 years boys event.

Twenty-two runners from the Mid-North Coast zone have been selected to compete in the State titles in Sydney on July 19.

Dr Dan leads Roos' supporters

Some famous Dubbo rugby union names from the past are set to converge on Bathurst's Carrington Park tomorrow to cheer on the Kangaroos.

Ted Baker, Graham Ottley, Michael Bradley and the most famous supporter of them all, the most reverend Dr Dan Frogan are making a pilgrimage from Sydney in anticipation of Dubbo's first Central West success since 1987.

Closer to home, two buses have already been booked to take spectators from Dubbo.

Roos' half Stuart Snare said there is still 20 seats available on the second bus and can be booked by contacting him on 82 3275.

If there is more numbers another bus will be booked.

Dear Mr. Frogan:

It has come to our attention that on July 4, 1992, you entered Canada through the Vancouver International Airport without declaring a jar of concentrated yeast extract (All Natural), commonly known as 'Vegemite'. Please be advised that this is a banned substance in Canada as it is considered an aphrodisiac for rugby players.

Detection of the product was by our newly acquired Blue Heeler sniffer dog. Unfortunately, this infraction was not reported at the time of your arrival as 'Blue' cracked onto a beautiful Kelpie immigrating from Dubbo. However, a report was filed later in the week, and follow-up action is now necessary under the Canada Agricultural Substance Abuse Act (1682).

To avoid prosecution, please provide this office with a complete report on your adventures in Pommy Land. If you have any questions regarding this matter, get stuffed.

Dear Mr Frogan

Thank you for your enquiry about the new Land Rover Defender.

Land Rover was the first 4WD produced back in 1947 and has remained a benchmark - the vehicle by which all other 4WDs are judged.

Land Rover has continually improved its products and the new Defender will be released in March this year. It will feature a high performance 2.5 litre turbocharged and intercooled diesel engine. This engine offers a blend of greater power, torque and economy. The Defender is available as a chassis-cab and will join its stablemates the Discovery and Range Rover in offering coil spring suspension, alloy panels, a full box-section chassis and constant four wheel drive.

Please find enclosed a brochure setting out full details on the specification of the Defender. Your local dealer will be delighted to give you any further information you may require, or to arrange a personal demonstration of this remarkable vehicle.

Dear Mr Frogan,

Thank you for your enquiry about the Public Trustee's Will-making service.

Why is it so important to have a Will? Because a Will determines precisely how your estate is to be divided - to whom, in what proportion, and under what conditions. Without a Will, your loved ones can expect uncertainty, delays and often unnecessary trauma in the administration of your estate.

People who die without leaving a Will are said to have died intestate. This means that their estate is distributed according to a legal formula, which is usually not the way they would have intended. The only way to ensure your wishes are met is to make a Will appointing an independent, professional executor.

Last Sunday the YAMBA "BUCCANEERS" RUGBY UNION CLUB staged a successful sign on day and family BBQ at the Yamba Sports Complex.

Over sixty players and supporters attended and witnessed an exciting cricket match between the PRESIDENTS XI and the TREASURERS XI. The twenty five overs match was declared a draw with both sides scoring 128 runs. Both teams were all out in their last over.

Highlights of the match included a spectacular SIX hit by Doug Anderson and a dogged last wicket stand by the little dynamo Barry Adams, partnered by Dan Frogan. The Treasurers XI were kept in touch by a superb knock by Barry (Chompz) Lawry and great bowling and fielding by Nathan White and Aaron Crozier.

My Dear Mr Mackie

RE: Proposed 'Centenary' Match in Yamba

Our member, Mr Warren Quigley (what G P S Old Boy isn't?), has passed your invitation for the above match on to us.

In considering our permission for Mr Quigley to partake in the match, we hope you realize it is now very rare that this illustrious former cricketer ventures onto the green of the cricket field.

Mr Quigley has indicated to us though, that as you are an old friend, he is prepared to 'help out', as it were, and play in your silly little game.

Mr Quigley is currently organising his travel arrangements and at this stage, he will be flying in on the morning of the match and is very unlikely to stay the night as he is double-booked in a Fun Run on Sunday morning in a place called Lismore.

However, as you are no doubt aware, Mr Quigley's lack of willpower is only counterbalanced by his insatiable thirst for alcohol.

As mentioned by telephone earlier, Mr Quigley's fee does increase somewhat if he is required to deliver an after dinner speech. Should this be required, I ask that you correspond direct to myself at the above address.

One thing does worry this establishment, and my colleagues are most perturbed by the prospect of you Aussies who go about organizing your own cricket matches without M C C approval. I mean, look at the trouble we had with that Packer chap.

I might also point out that Mr Quigley once spoke to a South African but we trust that won't de-bar him from playing. Mr Quigley has also indicated that he is quite prepared and would indeed consider it an honour to open the batting with a chap, who I believe calls himself Dan Fragan.

Recently we took a trip on up to Meedingley for the test and you'll be glad to know that a certain Dr Dan Frogan who once again requested through the public address to pull off some heroic stunt most urgently, saying he has also sponsored a starred in some off our games this season according to local press reports. You will be pleased to know we own only a couple of Aussie wickets all during the day and instead of suffering too much torture, got completely shut-out in several of the bats.

Dear Mr Mackie

As you are the carer for Dan Fogan I am forwarding to you the results/analysis of his effort in the 2003 Australasian Schools English Competition.

Dan's performance in the competition was very poor and this is a major concern to the school. Dan has been interviewed in relation to his results and he provided school and Departmental personnel with information concerning his home life. DET has a mandatory requirement to liaise with other statutory authorities and it has been determined that a detailed investigation into Dan's domestic circumstances is warranted.

You can anticipate Officers from DET and DOCS to contact you in the very near future with the view to arranging a mutually convenient time for an interview. It may also be necessary for the Officers to undertake an inspection of the physical conditions of Dan's place of residence. Should this be necessary, the Officers will be authorised to make alternative living arrangements for Dan to ensure his well being enables him to achieve more appropriate educational outcomes.

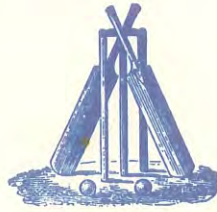

Should you have any questions relating to this matter please contact me on telephone 02 66461471.

Yours sincerely

Greeting from all your friends at Anston Cricket Club.

It was good of you to play host to Janet and I on our recent Australian Tour, taking in Melbourne and Sydney Test Matches.

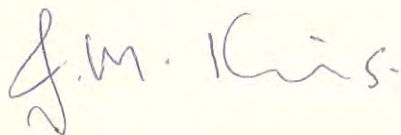

Regrettably England did not win "The Ashes" but beware the next occasion. Hopefully Dan, yourself and Graham Mackie might be able to visit England soon. We can assure you of a warm welcome.

I'm sure a match at the local Rugby Club could be arranged for you, if you so wished.

Dear Dr Dan,

Following your attendance at the NCCP Level 2 Certificate conducted in Wagga Wagga, and your successful completion of the practical & theory assignments, I am happy to forward to you your NCCP Level 2 Certificate & badge.

We were honoured to have you participate, in the course, and with your vast playing experience, and medical profession you provided valuable information for the other participants.

Your contribution throughout the week was enlightening, particularly your discussion on the operation and direction of the Shooters Party, in comparison to our cricket association.

Whilst gynaecology has not been a topic at previous Level 2 Courses, your views on fornication and conception probably will benefit coaches and cricketers in general.

In reference to your question during the course, Geoff Marsh has now been appointed as the National Team Coach for a period of 2 years and subject to his performance you may well apply in the future, but in the meantime I suggest you continue to coach at the grass roots level as there is a considerable increase in standard from your current involvement with the Yamba U9's C Division competition to the National Team.

Congratulations on successfully completing this course and I trust you will use the additional knowledge gained to assist in the development of cricket in your area.

Dear Mr Frogan

Thank you for your application for the position of Head Teacher (PD/Health/PE) at Dubbo High School. Unfortunately, due to your having sent this application by the slowest form of communication known to man (that is, Australia Post) it has only just arrived and could not therefore, be considered with the other applications. The position was filled months ago and the successful application has already taken up the position.

Do not be disheartened by this however, as your application, C.V. and supporting material is of such poor quality that it is unlikely that you would have been considered for any position at this school however low that position might be. Significant though your sporting achievements may be they have very little relevance in the 1990's and it is obvious that you are living in an age long past. You do not state your age on your application, but it must be considerable.

Should you wish for further feedback on your application and its presentation do not hesitate to contact me. I can set aside a couple of minutes for such an important task any time at all.

Please do keep applying for positions for I am sure one will surely surface for which you will be eminently well-qualified. No such position readily comes to mind, but I did see a job as a dog-handler at Dapto Greyhounds which would appear to be right up your alley.

I wish you well in your continuing career with this great Department of School Education.

Educationally yours

Dear Mr Frogan

Long term secure jobs are vital for this area.

Right now there are enormous opportunities for small business in the export and tourism markets.

I've spent most of my life in small business. I know how hard the work is and how important a healthy economy is to success in business.

As your local member I've worked hard to ensure opportunities for small business are expanded. To do this, it is vital to keep inflation and interest rates low.

One of my personal projects for the region has been the development of the Port of Yamba. Through dogged persistence I have been able to get $2 million in state and federal funding for the development of the Port.

I am now pleased to announce that the EIS on the Yamba Port development has been completed and will be released shortly for public comment.

The development of the Port will give increased opportunities for small business in the tourism and export markets. And that means more jobs, more security and a healthy economy.

I've always spoken up for Yamba and Maclean and I'm not afraid to step on a few toes and bruise a few egos to get things done.

I seek your support on Saturday to continue my efforts to encourage the development of the Port of Yamba for long term secure jobs and increased business opportunities.

Yours faithfully

Aussie economy worthy of gold

Phillip O'Neill

AUSTRALIANS are reluctant to embrace international success.

Some of our most loved characters fall short of the summit. Witness Gallipoli, Phar Lap, Raelene Boyle, Pat Rafter, Dan Frogan, Greg Norman.

We love struggle, especially if it's good natured; so we don't necessarily demand performance of the highest standards.

Having a go is everything. It's an Australian strength; and a weakness.

A consequence is that top performances can slip by without us noticing.

This was the message from the Governor of the Reserve Bank in a speech he gave last month.

The Guv, Ian Macfarlane, argued that the Australian economy has performed as well as any other developed nation for more than a decade.

For example, in the growth stakes Australia has sustained the highest rate among all developed nations. (Well, except for Ireland whose extraordinary growth is, well, um, very Irish.)

Pig threat

SIR,

I wish to present my point of view on the gun debate to the sane and rational people of Wagga. I, like most Waggaites, am a country boy born and bred and I resent in the strongest possible terms any moves to deprive me, firstly of my guns, and secondly of my democratic right to shoot.

I am a semi-professional pig shooter. Not only do I enjoy the thrill of pitting my hunting skills against the predatory instincts of the pig, but I believe I am performing a public service by ridding farmland of such a loathsome and destructive animal.

If we pig shooters are forcibly deprived of our guns then, in the near future, vast herds of feral razorbacks will be causing relentless damage to our farmlands and natural environment.

Join the fight against the do-gooders and support your local chapter of the Shooters Party.

Daniel Frogan, Yamba.

A ton of fun

As a biased and fanatical Dubbo Rugby Club supporter there are two issues that I wish to raise.

The first is to let all those who have played with, or against, been to a game, or even heard of Dubbo Rugby Club that they are celebrating their centenary this year.

The focal point of the celebrations will be a Centenary Ball to be held on the July 31.

The second point is to raise the issue of representative games being allocated to Dubbo. The last game of any significance played in Dubbo was in 1989, when we had 5000 spectators at the the British Lions v NSW "B" game.

The people of Dubbo, Wellington and further out west love their Rugby but the only major games (NSW Country, Country Cup or otherwise) we get to see are on television. Not since 1983 has NSW Country played at Dubbo.

Gold Coast Bulletin

Frogan honoured

GOLD Coast Dolphins cricket officials have paid tribute to an unsung hero who contributed to the club's one premier-ship win of the just-completed season.

Dan Frogan, 33 today, was named by president Craig McDermott and head coach Graham Mackie as one of the key behind-the-scenes influences who helped the Under 18 Blue side to the QCA premiership.

The unassuming Frogan, whose playing and administrative abilities are better known in Dubbo, was a stranger to Gold Coasters until Mackie, also a New South Wales country product, arrived at Kerrydale last off-season.

"His input, his tactical nous and the ability to communicate with people on all levels proved a real bonus for us," said Mackie.

The Dolphins plan to honour Frogan in a special ceremony at Friday's annual presentation function.

GOLD COAST BULLETIN,

quarter kept Katandra within range, when the game would have been won.

Graham Price and David Bate stood up for to Katandra's pressure on the Bulldog backline with fine running games. Brendan Ryan and Mick Hoban were the best of the key position players with Julian Pinnick, Andrew Powles, Adam Cleary and Matt Dellar best of the running brigade. Jarrod Patterson was another who continued his improved form.

Strathmerton's Reserves kept on keeping better than their senior counterparts with a six goal to one second half, to over run a spirited opposition with accuracy in front of goal major contributing factor. Strathy found seven goal kickers for its seven goals.

Neil Jenvey was a powerhouse in the conditions and Brad Mitchell provided the polish, Shane Ryan and Brian McNamara put enormous pressure on their opponents backline.

Strathmerton's Thirds kept the pressure on their undefeated opponents for the entire game in a very entertaining curtain-raiser despite the conditions. Katandra's depth of talent allowed it to slip away in the dying moments to record a 17 point win. Best for the Doggies were Marcus Daniel, Luke Kirne, Shane Ryan and Daniel Koopman.

Strathmerton's Fourths had a good win with newcomer Daniel Forgan, a rugby union convert, kicking four goals in a brilliant debut.

Ready and able

In response to Dan Frogan ("Emergency funds," Letters, January 3), before the Sydney Olympic Games in 2000 the NSW Fire Brigades established a world-class chemical, biological and radiological capability. This included the purchase of additional detection equipment, development of a mass decontamination facility and counter-terrorism training for all firefighters. All of this boosted the Brigades' ability to respond to chemical, biological and radiological attacks.

Since the Olympics, the Brigades has continued its ongoing training programs and in 2001-02 trained 5600 firefighters and more than 450 emergency service workers in HazMat and chemical, biological and radiological response.

Post September 11 the Brigades reviewed the level of equipment capability and found it met the level of threat at that time.

After the Bali attack the Brigades received an extra $1.69 million for the purchase of additional equipment, training and specialised staff, on top of the Brigades' existing HazMat and breathing apparatus annual budget of $8 million, as the level of threat has increased.

A further $1 million will be spent over the next 18 months on specialised Urban Search and Rescue (USAR) and chemical, biological and radiological training of all firefighters in this area.

NSW Fire Brigades' firefighters are more ready than ever before to deal with a terrorist attack.

LAMBTON-NEW LAMBTON DISTRICT CRICKET CLUB NEWS

All grades at Lambton-New Lambton District Cricket club are well placed to make the semi-finals as we approach the half-way stage of the season. Consistent performances, particularly by 1st Grade, sees the Club in second position of the Club Championship table.

Bannister and Glenn Grimmond represented Newcastle in the recent Light Ice Country Championships and both enjoyed success with the bat and ball. Mark Cameron has been selected in the NSW U19 squad and was a walk-up start for the Newcastle Colts team to play in the Country Championships in Tamworth over Christmas. The club congratulates all players on their achievements. Throughout the grades many players are delivering top class performances including Michael Akerman, Jacob Sullivan, Adam Brandt and former West Junior Jason France. Experienced players have also bolstered the ranks including Michael Smith and Dan Frogan. Dan, who hails from Bathurst, has played cricket in many parts of the world and brings a wealth of experience to the club.

West Junior teams have been participating in practice sessions with Lambton coaches on Wednesday afternoons at Harker Oval, and despite the inconsistent weather of recent months, only one day has been totally washed out. Each session is designed to give the boys and girls something different to their usual practice routine. Coaches provide their time to explain basic cricket skills and involve each team in drills and games to reinforce the message. Like any junior sport, participation, fun and enjoyment are key elements emphasised during these sessions. The participation and feedback has been excellent and we wish President Gerry Lister, his coaches and teams at

Maclean claims Examiner Shield

MACLEAN High School secured its second Daily Examiner Shield cricket competition with a convincing win over Grafton High School at McKittrick Oval on Friday night.

Setting Grafton High 152 for victory Maclean High's bowlers rallied to bowl Grafton out for 130.

Leon Gulaptis was the star for Maclean High, scoring a match high 46 before snaring the best figures of any bowler in the final with 6/16.

He was named player of the final while his team mate Leon West was named player of the series.

Maclean High's win made up for last year's loss in the final to South Grafton High School.

Earlier in the day South Grafton High School won the inaugural Daily Examiner Under-14 Shield with a crushing 68-run win over Catherine McAuley College.

History

As told by the official club historian Dr Dan Frogan.

In preparation for the 100 years of Dubbo Rugby Club in 1999 an archives committee is being formed. See Lionel Walsh or Andy Haycock if you want to be involved.

There have been 38 doctors of medicine who have played for Australia. Included in this list are several with connection to the Roos. Dr Bruce BEITH played for his country around WWI, he is related to Dr Beith who's surgery is in Wingewarra St. Dr Ralph GARNER played for his country in the late 1940's, early 50's. This is "Ali" Ben Garner's brother, and uncle of Zoob, Damian, and Monica. Of more specific Dubbo origin is Roos life member Dr Geoffrey CHAPMAN. He played 3 tests for Australia. Educated at Farrer High in Tamworth he only started playing Rugby when he went to Sydney Uni. He was described as a "magnificent goal kicker" scoring 61 pts on the 1962 tour of NZ. He returned to Dubbo playing for the Roos in the 1970's, but has since moved to the Gold Coast. Then of course there is also Dr Dan FROGAN who also represented Australia. Logo two

IN response to the new Clarence Valley Council logo I would like to point out that instead of giving $8730 to the North Coast Ad Agency for what amounts to be a day's work on Corel Draw it would have been more appropriate to offer $2000 to $5000 for a competition or submission by a local Clarence Valley artist.

At least they would capture the essence of Valley life instead of it being portrayed very badly by the Ad Agency.

The logo lacks balance and symmetry and is very lacklustre in colour and all other basic components of graphic design.

It is reminiscent of a basic school exercise in design and graphics.

I hope this is not a further indication of the new council's attitude towards downtrodden Clarence Valley artists?

Dear Mr.Frogan,

This may be a bit strange, but I'm writing to ask who you are? I have your email address in my notes as someone to contact, but I don't know in what facet or association. Are you associated with Art Visionary Magazine by any chance? A ggod friend of mine, Cynthia Torroll from the USA will be in the next edition, and in the show in Orange this year. Your address is in with that info. I'd appreciate it if you could get back to me regarding this. Thank you so much.

AUSTRALIAN CRICKET BOARD

The past twelve months have been an immensely challenging and rewarding time for the Australian Cricket Board.

On the field, Australia completed a great year and laid claim to being the best cricket nation by winning the World Cup and maintaining its strong Test record. Off the field, cricket continued to move forward as the ACB dealt effectively with the complexities of the modern sporting environment.

I trust you will find it interesting to reflect on what has been achieved by Australian cricket over the past twelve months and on the challenges that lie ahead.

As one of the major highlights at the beginning of the Year 2000 it is my pleasure to announce that DAN FROGAN is to be awarded a TESTIMONIAL MATCH for his distinguished services to the game of cricket in Australia.

As a player, coach & administrator he has maintained the highest level of enthusiasm & professionalism with his involvement in the game and now in his 50th year the ACB would like to acknowledge these fine efforts & achievements with a celebration cricket match.

This celebrity fixture will be played on Sunday, the 27th day of February 2000
Commencing at 10am at the Gold Coast Dolphins home ground at Kerrydale.
Your presence is essential on that day to ensure that it is successful and that the highest standard of cricket is maintained in front of the sell-out crowd.

I hope to catch up with you on that day to reflect on the numerous FROGANISTIC type stories which will emanate over a few cold XXXX's or two.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Dr Frogan,

A small note to express our gratitude to you for your support of Stadium Australia.

We are aware of your outstanding work on the development of Rugby in our State.

You have represented Country Rugby so well and have shown your considerable knowledge of the game, the executive of our Stadium wish to bestow upon you an Ambassadorship.

You would be joining our other Ambassadors David Campese and Mark Taylor. Clearly, their exploits do not quite match yours and we feel it would be appropriate to differentiate our award to you.

Accordingly, the award includes the words Country Member. A suitable plaque with photo will be located in the Ambassadors Room on Level 5 South, Members Stand.

We anticipate our Membership acknowledging you and drinking a toast, with raised glass and reciting Dan Frogan, he's a country member.

How could we forget!

Congratulations – Best Wishes.

Dear Noel

We have received a request from the Country Division of the NSW Rugby Union requesting consideration be given to honouring one of our States finest sons, Dan Frogan.

Following the signing of our new contract with the Sydney Cricket and Sports Ground Trust and the transfer of our "home" from Concord Oval to the Sydney Football Stadium, we would appreciate your Trust's deliberation on naming a section of the Sydney Football Stadium as the "Dan Frogan Stand".

We have provided details of Dan's career statistics, which are considerable, by separate mail.
